Today is Peace with Justice Sunday

Why Does It Matter? The world is full of conflict, division, and injustice. Peace with Justice Sunday reminds us that the church has a role to play in making things right. United Methodists believe that working for peace means addressing the deeper causes of conflict—like poverty, racism, and oppression. It's not just about ending war, but about building a world where everyone is treated with dignity. Peace with Justice Sunday matters because it equips United Methodists to advocate for change and support ministries that challenge systems of inequality and violence.

Today is Trinity Sunday

What is the significance of Trinity Sunday?

Trinity Sunday is a designated day observed in honor and contemplation of the triune nature of God-Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Traditionally celebrated on the first Sunday after Pentecost, it underscores the biblical truth that God is one Being revealed in three co-eternal Persons. Although the exact term "Trinity" does not appear in Scripture, the concept arises from the consistent testimony of the Bible, reflecting the Father's will, the Son's redeeming work, and the Holy Spirit's active presence in believers.

This day highlights the believer's call to worship the one true God in fullness, recalling passages such as Matthew 28:19, which teaches, "Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit."
