July Oxcart: School Supplies

We will be collecting school supplies. Please place your contribution in the green box in Fellowship Hall. Thank you!

The congregations of Rockport and North Olmsted will be having a combined worship service on July 19th at 10:00am and everyone is invited to stay afterwards for a potluck brunch. Enjoy the beautiful outdoor sanctuary at Rockport UMC and then stay for food and fellowship. Beverages, table settings, and ham and egg casseroles with Italian sausages in a roll will be provided. We will try to eat immediately after the 10:00 service. Please bring a side of fruit, salads, casseroles, coffee cakes, donuts and more to share. Rockport UMC is excited to share church service together and to share food and fellowship following the service. Please plan to join us!! Any questions feel free to call Diana Leitch, Rockport Fun & Fellowship Chair 440-759-5980.

Thank you to all who make VBS so delightful, and to those who helped serve the "Bread on Bridge" meal at Nehemiah!

Summer Intergenerational VBS Sessions: Last Week!

The Christian Education Team would like to invite you to bring your younger children, grandchildren, nieces and nephews, or any young children in your care to our last Summer VBS sessions on Tuesday July 14th, from 10:30-12:30! Any questions? See Wendy Cooper or email her at sundayschool@noumc.org.

9 Life Lessons We Learned from 'The Golden Girls' (paraphrased from "People" magazine)

It's been 30 years since The Golden Girls premiered on the small screen, showing us that there's no better way to hash out life's problems than over cheesecake. To mark the classic comedy's anniversary, we've rounded up some of the most important life lessons that the ladies have taught us.

Don't let life pass you by. Nothing – not even a temporary stay at Shady Pines – should keep you from living your dreams and experiencing life to the fullest.

Don't be controlled by your emotions. Sometimes you're so angry you consider doing something irrational, and sometimes all you need is a treat to calm you down. It's important to take a moment and consider which one will benefit you in the long run.

Have confidence in your abilities. There's nothing wrong with tooting your own vetugenfluken every once in a while. If you can reach it.

Honesty is important. Keeping your true feelings inside is as bad as getting a piece of shredded wheat caught under your dentures.

It's okay to make it all about you sometimes. Maybe you need someone to listen to your problems, or maybe you just want to be told how great your new outfit is.

Take time to appreciate the little things. We can't all meet Burt Reynolds or win at Grab That Dough, but sometimes even the simplest things in life can bring us the most happiness.

Food is more satisfying than romance. Love comes and goes, but food is always there for you, and it will never let you down (except when you consume too much scungilli).

There's nothing more important in life than friendship. A good friend will bail you out of jail, encourage your dream of being a stand-up comic, hate your exes (and their toupees) for you and will travel down the road and back again with you.

...Except maybe cheesecake. There is no problem in this world that it can't solve.
